a p j abdul kalam became president of india in july 2002 he was a surprise choice a scientist and not a politician with an unusual hairstyle and an unassuming way of doing things and no other agenda except that of seeing india become a developed and strong nation how would such a man fit into the regal splendour of rashtrapati bhavan and all the pomp and ceremony of a head of state what followed however as p m nair shows in the kalam effect was a remarkable presidency that in the next five years transformed the way people looked at this office and made kalam popular in a way few politicians have been rashtrapati bhavan became a much more accessible place and his at homes drew guests in the thousands not only that the website he set up became a huge draw and people wrote to him on e mail or otherwise from across the country his positive attitude infected all those who came in touch with him while the reasons for his popularity will be analysed for a long time nair who was his secretary suggests in this affectionate yet factual account some of the probable causes one of these being that kalam is just a very special human being
